Krowne announces Owen Anderson as Northeastern Regional Sales Manager- Plumbing

Wayne, New Jersey (October 9, 2023): Krowne, a leading manufacturer in the foodservice and plumbing equipment supply industry, announced the addition of Owen Anderson to their growing team.

Owen will be assuming the role of Territory Sales Manager - East for the plumbing division of Krowne. He will be working remotely out of Long Island, New York. He was most recently a Lead Sales Representative at GOAT USA in the apparel industry but will be transferring to plumbing with this role. Owen's experience and knowledge working under a master plumber at Jack Berleth & Sons makes him an excellent candidate for this role. Owen holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice with a minor in pre-law from SUNY Oswego.

Owen joined the Krowne team on September 11, 2023.
